Family Members of California National Guard Soldiers/Airmen

Dear Families:

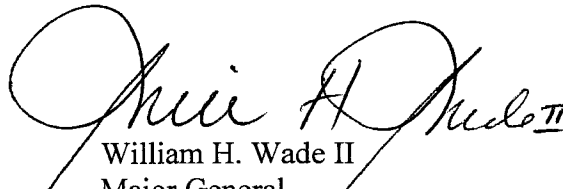

The California National Guard is proud to join forces with other states and relief agencies to support those affected by this natural disaster.

For many, this is not the first time you have been separated from your service member due to their military membership. I am grateful for your willingness to support your Soldier or Airman as they are deployed to provide vital aid to hundreds of thousands of fellow Americans who are without home and, for many, without their own loved ones.

As we continue to work together to ensure that the California National Guard remains ready, reliable, and relevant, please know that our troops' safety is of paramount importance to me --- whether they are deployed forward, across the Nation, or in California. I assure you that we will bring your service member home as soon as we can, based on the requirements of this crucial mission.

If you need assistance while your family member is gone, please be sure to contact your Regional Family Assistance Network (FAN) Coordinator (see enclosed contact list) or our Operation Ready Families Program at (800) 449-9662.

Sincerely,

William H. Wade II
Major General
The Adjutant General
